

What is Storyverse?

LiteracyPlanet's Storyverse is a unique story world filled with interacting and parallel stories and multiple characters. Each of these stories are filled with characters and locations that are consistent with the shared story worlds. LiteracyPlanet's narrative universe immerses the reader into a shared story world that is both meaningful and memorable.

How LP does it

LiteracyPlanet's Storyverse ignites students' interest in great storytelling. Students are intrigued by compelling storylines, characters, themes, and ideas. Immersion in episodic narrative results in students becoming actively involved and committed to the learning process.

LiteracyPlanet's Storyverse is a series of stories that are released to the student as they make progress on their learning journey. Teachers can read these stories with students in the classroom, igniting discussion about the characters and events, as well as inspiring further narrative creation.
