

Running Record - 'Landmarks'

LiteracyPlanet Level : LP8 (Word count:373)

Student Name
Date
Errors:		Accuracy Rate:
Self-corrections:		Self-correction Ratio:

Sentence	E	SC	E M S V	SC M S V
Landmarks A landmark is an object or a special feature that helps people to know where they are. Landmarks can usually be seen from a distance and they can be easily recognised. Buildings, bridges and natural features of the environment can all be landmarks. Different places have their own landmarks. Some landmarks are very famous and are known by people all over the world. People often travel to different countries to see the most famous landmarks. They stand in front of landmarks and take photos.

The Great Wall of China The Great Wall of China is a man-made landmark. People travel from all over the world to see this famous landmark. The Great Wall of China is a very old wall in northern China. The wall is over 21 000 kilometres long and is more than 2300 years old. It was built to protect China from enemy invasions.
The wall was built using many different building materials. In some sections, mud, straw and sticks were used. Other sections were built using stone and cement. Bricks were used, too. The wall does not run in one single line. There are gaps in the wall. In some sections, a mountain or river takes the place of the wall. Other sections are damaged and falling apart.
Today, some sections of the wall no longer exist. Other sections are kept in excellent

condition for tourists to visit and walk on.
Mount Fuji Mount Fuji is the highest mountain in Japan. It is a natural landmark. Mount Fuji is 3776 metres tall. People from all over the world travel to see it. Some people climb Mount Fuji.
Mount Fuji is said to be the perfect cone shape. It is an active volcano but has not erupted since 1707. Its peak is covered in snow for about five months every year.
Mount Fuji is surrounded by five lakes. You can get a good view of the mountain from the lakes. People enjoy visiting the lakes for picnics, hiking, camping and fishing.
Mount Fuji is loved by Japanese people. It can be seen in many Japanese artworks. Other Landmarks There are many more famous landmarks around the world. Can you name these landmarks? Do you know where they are found?

Total:

Recorded Observations:

--