Introduction Cricket is a popular sport played by men and women. Children can also play cricket.
Equipment To play cricket, you need a ball, a flat bat, a pitch, and two wickets. The pitch is a rectangular area of mown grass. This is where the main action happens! Around the pitch is an oval field or outfield where the fielders stand.
Uniform A team uniform is a white shirt, sweater and matching pants. The batsman wears pads on his legs, gloves and a helmet for protection. The wicket keeper wears pads

and gloves. All players wear sports shoes or boots, sometimes with spikes to help them run safely on the grass.
Players There are 11 players on a team. The bowler starts his run up to the stumps at one end of the pitch. He bowls or throws the ball at the wicket. He tries to hit the stump or wicket with the ball. The bowler bowls an over of six bowls. Two batsmen go onto the field, one at each wicket. They take turns hitting the ball. The batsman tries to hit the bowls. He stands in front of the wicket. The wicketkeeper stands behind the wicket to catch the ball. The players stand in the outfield and try to catch the ball or get the batsman out.
Rules If the batsman hits the ball, he can run to the wicket on the opposite end of the pitch. The other batsman runs, too. When both batsmen run to the opposite wicket, that is one run. When they run back to their starting wickets, that is another run.
If the batsman hits the ball to the boundary line or beyond, extra runs are scored. The team with the most runs wins

the game. The batsman is out if the wicketkeeper catches the ball, or the ball hits the wicket. The batsman is out if he is running and a player throws the ball at the wicket. Cricket can last three hours or even five days.
Events Cricket is played around the world in tournaments. There are state and national cricket teams.
Conclusion Cricket is fun. Play or watch the game!
