

Trading Cards Classroom Ideas

Explore Characters

Have students colour/draw/describe each character using single adjectives, simple sentences or full descriptive paragraphs.

Guess Who

Read out the character description and have students guess which character the text is referring to.

Create Portraits

Use the trading card image and description as a stimulus for students to create a portrait of a chosen character. Attach adjective word cards around the image.

Create Displays

Create a description of the character and attach the description to the bottom of the artwork. Display in the classroom.

Cut out the cards to add to your collection.

CHARACTER

NAME Stag

PET PHRASE "YOU GUYS ARE ALRIGHT!"

PROFILE

As the oldest of the group, Stag feels responsible for Stonn and Stepps. His age, strength, and personality make him the undisputed leader of the group. Although he tries to avoid danger, if danger is unavoidable, he will take action. Stag is cautious, stoic and doesn't care much for small talk.

NAME Stonn

PET PHRASE

"I HAVE WAYS TO MAKE YOU TALK!"

PROFILE

Stepps is the youngest of the group. She is nicknamed "Pink" by Stag and Stonn, who love her for her quirky, confident and independent nature. Although she is high energy and mostly happy, she can change mood easily, leading her to become sullen and withdrawn if ignored for long enough.

CHARACTER

NAME Stepps

PET PHRASE "YOU HAVE MY APOLOGIES...

PROFILE

Stepps has a habit of keeping to herself. She can be blunt, unimpressionable and mildly jaded. Nevertheless, she is not outspoken like Stag or Stonn. When she is bitten by the Day Howler, rather than be healed, she refuses. She is left with a scar and the effects of the Day Howler curse which she must learn to control.

Colour in Stag and then cut out the cards to add to your collection.
